SON OF OFFICIAL IS HELD FOR SMUGGLING

Fantino Vasquez, son of Mexican customs inspector Vasquez, of Juarez, was bound over by United States commissioner Oliver this morning to await the action of the United States grand jury on the charge of smuggling opium into the United States.

Vasquez was arrested Jan. 1 by the customs officers and when searched five cans of opium were found on his person.

TRASH PILE FIRE.

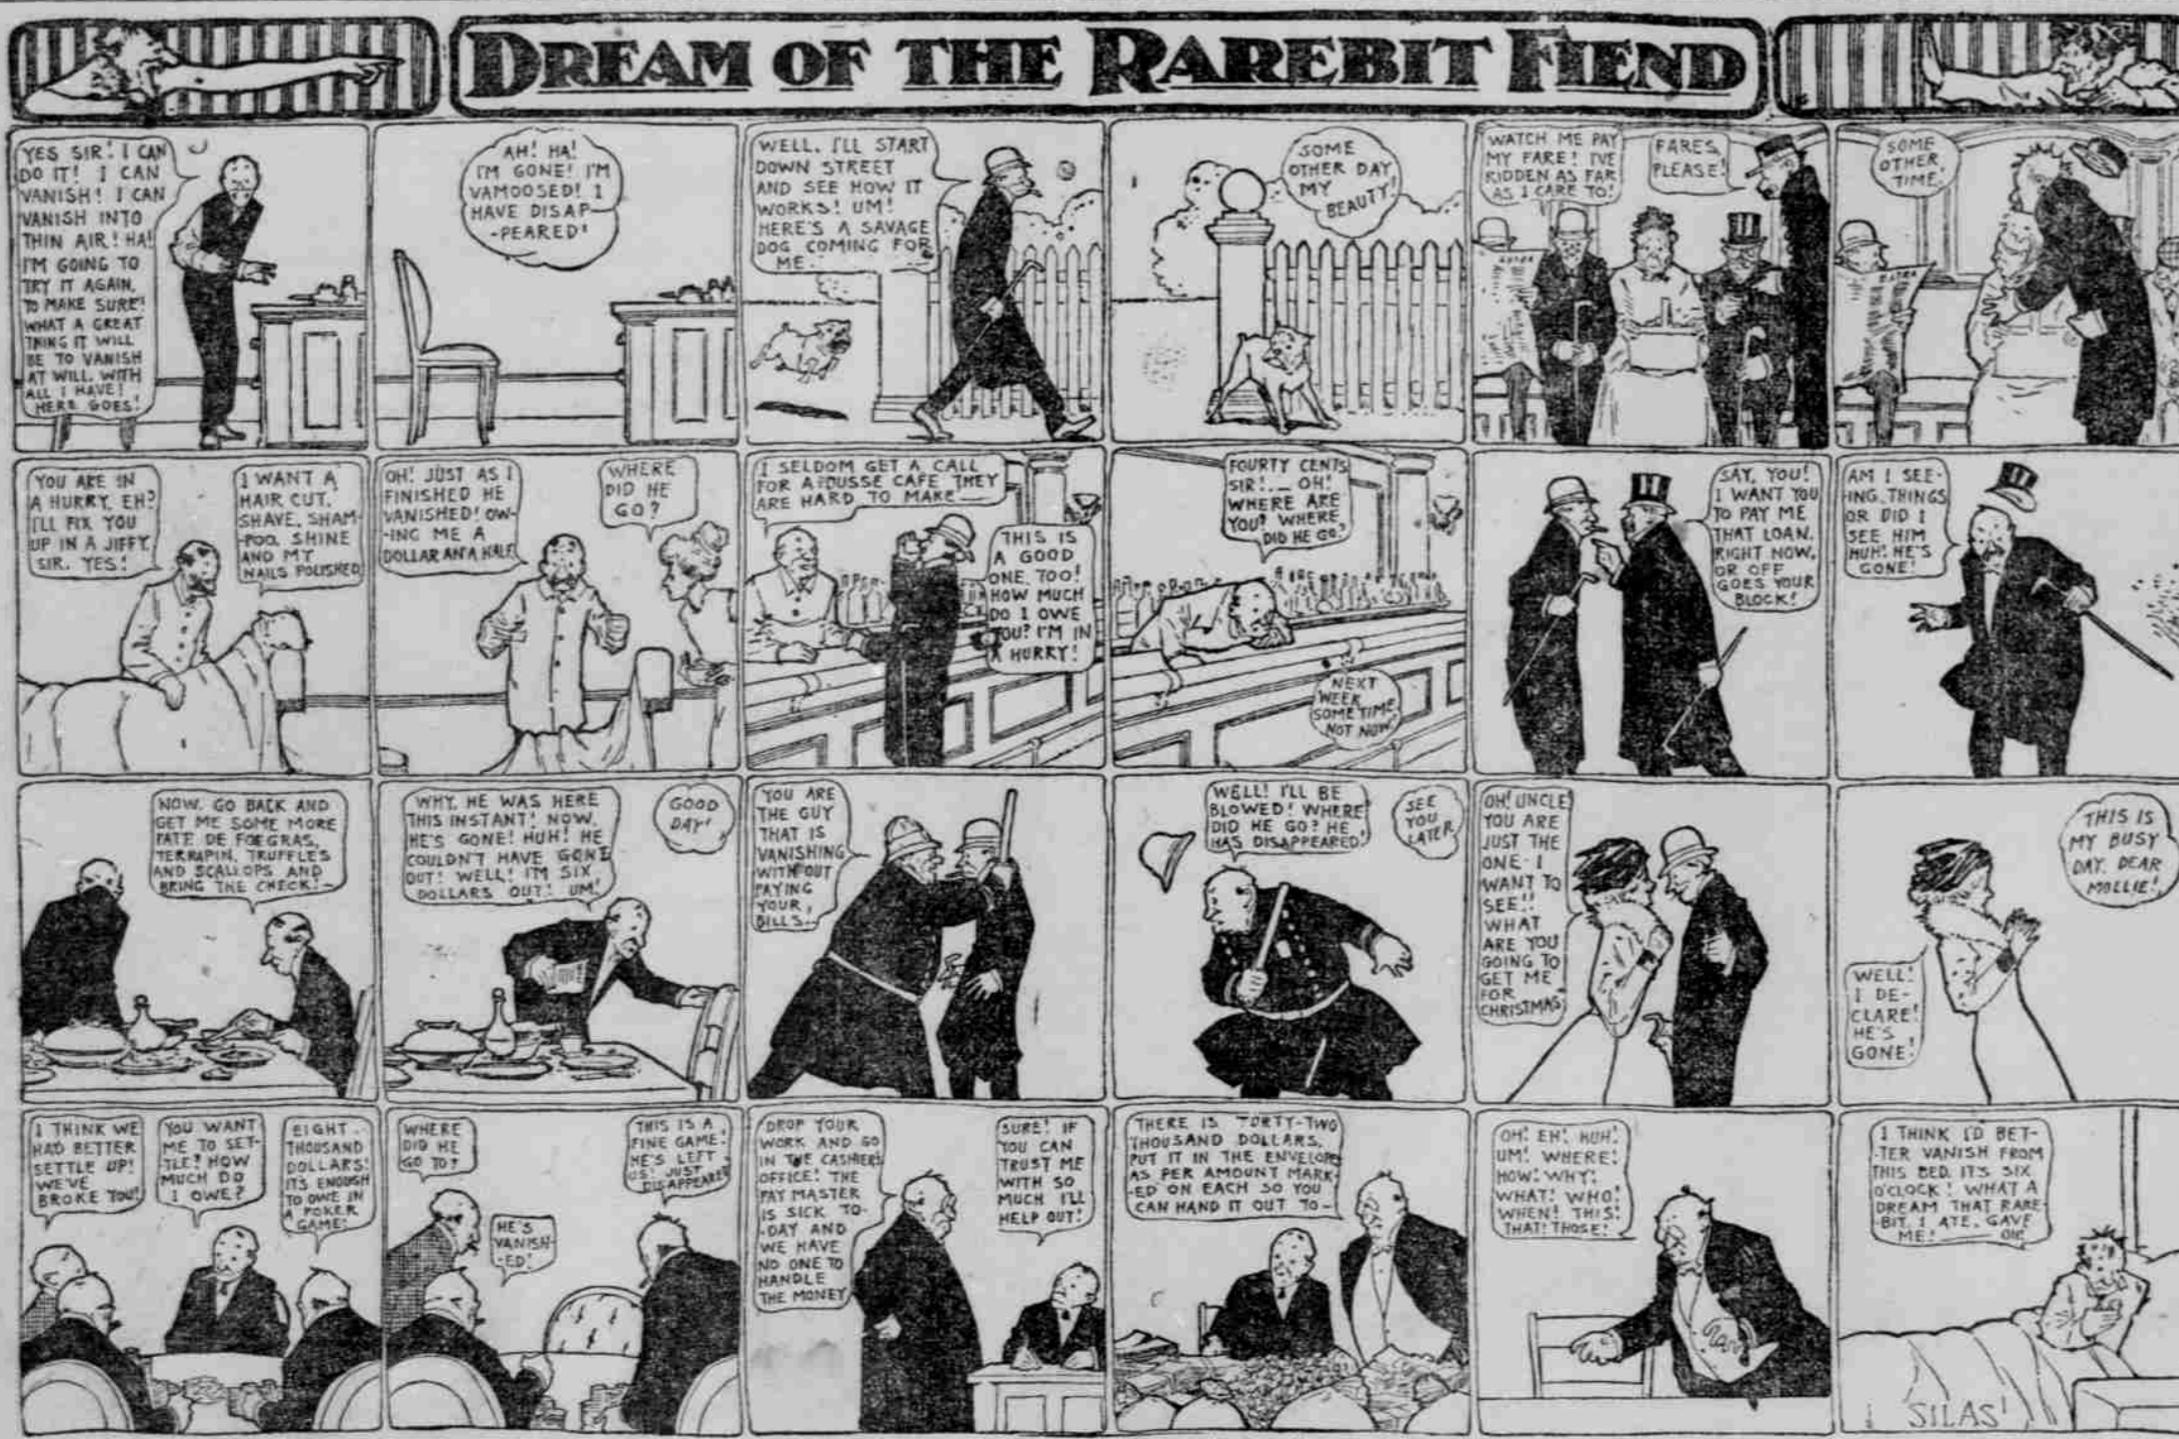

Another fire was caused at 1:45 this afternoon by the placing of hot ashes in a wooden box in the yard of 704 Mesa avenue. An alarm was turned in which was answered by the Mesa company. No damage was done.

Building Inspector S. B. Haggart has returned from Fort Worth, where he visited with his children.

EL PASO COUNTY IS AFTER LAND SWINDLERS

"I have received a letter from an attorney at Weatherford, Tex., stating that vendor's lien notes for land in the fictitious La Prieta grant have been issued there," said judge Elyar this morning. "I immediately wrote the attorney there asking him to ascertain who is circulating the notes and assuring him that we would do all in our power to prosecute the person who is practicing this swindling game."

KIDNEY and URINARY diseases and all Diseases and Weaknesses of MEN due to evil habits of youth, abuses, excesses, etc., which cause drains, impairs the mind and destroys Mental and Physical Power.

It is not uncommon for a misfortune that a man contracts diseases or weakness, but that he neglects them or fails to secure the proper treatment for their cure.

Men who are weak mentally, morally and physically, whose systems have at some time been polluted with poisonous private diseases, those whose depicted mankind forbids any advance toward manhood, and who made the mistake of trying while there lurked in their system some frightful weakness or pronounced signs of private diseases, and who now find themselves on the verge of social ruin.

To all such men a conscientious and experienced doctor would advise you to consult without delay the best specialists. One who has made a lifelong study of just such cases. One who can decide and fully understand your trouble.

One who will not deceive you with false promises or unbusinesslike language, who will and will cure you in the shortest possible time and at the least expense to you. Any man in need of such medical advice or treatment should come at once to the
